DECLARATION OF GREGORY R. WESTBROOK

1. I am a Vice President of Eastman Kodak Company ("Kodak"), and I submit this Declaration on behalf of Kodak in support of the pure customer defendants' motion to stay the above-entitled actions.

2. I have been continuously employed by Kodak since 1990 and have held a variety of research, manufacturing and general management positions directly involved with Kodak's professional and consumer imaging business. Among the positions I have held at Kodak, I have served as Business Operations Manager of Kodak's Digital Capture,

Digital and Applied Imaging Division, General Manager of Digital Cameras and Home Printing Hardware, and currently serve as General Manager, Digital Capture, Digital and Film Imaging Systems. By virtue of these positions, I am familiar with Kodak's electronic product design and manufacturing activities, including, but not limited to, those relating to Kodak's digital still camera products.

3. Kodak is in the business of, among other things, the manufacture and sale of digital still cameras, including digital cameras that contain an LCD screen.

4. Kodak does not, nor has it ever, designed, manufactured or assembled any of the LCD screens that are attached to any Kodak brand product, including digital still cameras. Rather, Kodak purchases all of the LCD screens from outside suppliers and manufacturers.

5. Pursuant to Section 1746 of Title 28 of the United States Code, I declare the foregoing to be true and correct under the penalties of perjury of the United States of America.
